

City of Thibodaux
2009 Employee of the Year
Officer Jacob Thibodeaux
Thibodaux Police Department

In 2003, we created the city's Employee of the Month program to recognize city employees who share our commitment to always put "People First." An "Employee of the Year" is chosen out of the twelve "Employee(s) of the Month." Jacob Thibodeaux received the coveted award on December 17, 2009. Congratulations Officer Thibodeaux. I appreciate your dedication to the city.

Meet Officer Jacob Thibodeaux

Jacob's commitment to the city's "Standards of Performance" is without waver. He is known by his co-workers for having a great attitude on a daily basis. He goes above and beyond his job requirements and responsibilities. He also takes initiative. Therefore, his involvement in any area ensures that the entire department will function more effectively and efficiently.

Detective Thibodeaux serves as "Evidence Custodian" and he chose to revamp evidence organization and processes so the department will run more smoothly.

Detective Thibodeaux volunteered to assume the responsibilities of Domestic Violence Detective and Crime Victim's Assistance Advocate. After assuming the new roles, Detective Thibodeaux created a weekly reporting system which carefully documents his department's progress and cases.

In addition to his original responsibilities and those duties that go along with his new role(s) in the Thibodaux Police Department, Detective Thibodeaux continued his education by completing online courses in Forgery, Fraud, and Cyber Crime Management – making him more knowledgeable about white collar crime.

Police Chief Craig Melancon said, "Detective Thibodeaux is an exemplary employee. Particularly, his work in handling evidence has streamlined processes and established protocol which allow for greater efficiency. He is well deserving of this honor."

Officer Thibodeaux was named "Employee of the Month" in October.

Congratulations Officer Thibodeaux!
