For Immediate Release: February 8, 2010

Mayor Charles Caillouet Announces the Upcoming Launch of the City's Anti-Litter Campaign

Thibodaux, LA – In the next six to eight weeks, the City of Thibodaux will launch its Anti-Litter Campaign, announced Mayor Charles Caillouet. If you or your organization/company would like to participate in the campaign by volunteering or sponsoring the campaign, contact Luci Sposito, city's Marketing & Public Relations Administrator, lsposito@ci.thibodaux.la.us or 985-448-5852.

The possible ideas for the upcoming campaign include, but are not limited to:

1. Banners along Canal Blvd.
2. Campaign slogan and coloring contest for elementary students.
3. Opportunity to earn service hours for high school students.
4. Anti-Litter Slogan Signs throughout the city.
5. City-wide clean up days.
6. T-Shirts listing sponsors.
7. New trash cans (with Anti-Litter Message) strategically placed throughout the city.

“Thibodaux is a very clean city, but there is always room for improvement,” said Mayor Caillouet. The Mayor hopes the campaign will raise public awareness regarding litter in communities. “I am inviting everyone to participate in our campaign. Schools, businesses, churches, organizations, and individuals are welcomed and encouraged to contribute to the new campaign, which will improve the quality of life for all.”
