

City of Thibodaux

"People First"

Senior Mayor for the Day Mr. Earl (E.J.) Rhodes April 6, 2010

"Mayor" Rhodes is a lifelong Thibodaux resident. He has been married to Theresa Cook Rhodes for 46 years. "Mayor" Rhodes has six children, nine grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. He is a member of Moses Baptist Church where he enjoys volunteering doing, "whatever they need me to do." "Mayor" Rhodes retired from the Post Office after working thirty-five years. He enjoys spending time with his large family and said, "I've met a lot of people over the years and I enjoy Thibodaux so much because of the pleasant people who live here."

Thank You, "Mayor" Rhodes. You served the City well!
